Virtual Radiologic Signs Multi-Year Contract With Lion City Radiology to Provide Teleradiology Coverage in Singapore and United Arab Emirates

Agreement Includes Provision for Final Interpretations

MINNEAPOLIS, Jul 28, 2008 (PrimeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Virtual Radiologic Corp. (Nasdaq:VRAD), a leading national provider of teleradiology services, today announced a multi-year agreement with Lion City Radiology of Singapore to provide preliminary interpretations of CT and MRI studies for imaging centers affiliated with Lion City Radiology in Singapore and United Arab Emirates (UAE). The agreement also includes the provision for final interpretations of Singapore radiological studies upon validation by the Singapore Ministry of Health.

"We are pleased to partner with Lion City Radiology for our first international contract," said Ade Adeyemi, Virtual Radiologic's General Manager of International Operations. "Lion City Radiology is a growing and innovative provider of radiology interpretation and related services in Southeast Asia and the Middle East. In addition to the agreement we have already signed, we will collaborate on opportunities for strategic deployment of our technology infrastructure and workflow management services in select international markets."

"This agreement represents an entry point for Virtual Radiologic in the international market," said Sean Casey, Chief Executive Officer of Virtual Radiologic. "Partnering with Lion City Radiology allows us to expand Virtual Radiologic's interpretation services offerings to some of the fastest-growing and most promising imaging markets in the world. We are confident that Lion City Radiology will benefit from Virtual Radiologic's vast array of coverage options and commitment to quality patient care."

Said Dr. Vas Metupalle, Managing Director of Lion City Radiology, "As a high-growth radiology service provider, we are witnessing the emerging markets for teleradiology. Our partnership with Virtual Radiologic will enable us to expand our services in these markets. Virtual Radiologic has a well-earned reputation for service excellence, and we know we can depend on them for the round-the-clock coverage and high quality subspecialty expertise that our clients in Singapore and UAE demand. We are excited to begin our new venture with Virtual Radiologic."
